FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HIGHWAY 41 RESURFACING NEAR CHOLAME BEGINS NEXT WEEK

SAN LUIS OBISPO COUNTY– Caltrans will resurface a section of State Route 41 from the Hwy. 46 East/State Route 41 Interchange to the summit of Cottonwood Pass on Wednesday, May 13.

This maintenance work will result in a full closure of State Route 41 from the Hwy. 46 East/State Route 41 Interchange to State Route 33 from 8 am until 5 pm.

Motorists may use the following detours during this one-day project:

- Motorists headed northbound will continue on Highway 46 East to State Route 33 to State Route 41.
- Motorists headed southbound on State Route 41 will detour to State Route 33 to Highway 46.
- Kecks Road at Hwy. 46 East will be closed to all motorists during this road work.

This detour will add an additional 27 miles/minutes to the regular commute for a total of a 50 mile detour. Message boards have been activated on Highway 41 in Cholame and Kettleman City to advise motorists of this closure and detours.
