

Bo Mazzetti

Bo Mazzetti is a key member of the Executive team for the Reservation Transportation Authority (RTA), which is a tribal consortium of federally recognized Indian tribes in Southern California. Mr. Mazzetti played a major role in the establishment of the RTA, when he, along with several tribal governments saw the desperate need to improve reservation roads and transportation in a cost-effective manner to better serve Tribal communities. Mazzetti has been a Board member on the California Department of Transportation's Native American Advisory Committee since 1999. Mr. Mazzetti was previously employed by the Bureau of Indian Affairs Southern California Agency in Riverside.

He is a member of the Rincon San Luiseno Band of Mission Indians and has previously served on the Rincon Tribal Council. Mazzetti is has been one of the two Rincon delegates to the San Luis Rey Water Authority Board, a consortium of the La Jolla, Pala, Pauma, San Pasqual and Rincon Bands, formed to initiate a successful litigation to protect the five tribes' water rights. He has served as a delegate to the California Nations Indian Gaming Association. Mazzetti has also been a former Board member to the Rincon Economic Development Board. He was the Indian Community Affairs and Citizen Assistance Officer for San Diego County. Mazzetti is also a businessman, who owned and operated Mazzetti and Company, a reservation-based general building, engineering and well drilling company since 1979. For a brief period, he constructed motion picture sets for Columbia and Paramount Pictures in Hollywood.

He attended LaVerne College on a football scholarship as a graduate of Orange Glen High School in Escondido, California. Mazzetti graduated from California Polytechnic University with a Bachelor of Science degree in behavioral science. Mazzetti is a military veteran; he served in the United States Navy, including two tours in Vietnam.

Honorable Chris Devers

The honorable Chris Devers is the elected Tribal Chairman for the Pauma/Yuima Band of Mission Indians. Devers has been a leader among his community and in the nation for over twenty years working on various issues including water, Indian child welfare, gaming, roads, etc. He has been instrumental in the new developments that have provided much needed governmental services to his Tribal community.