

Kimberly Yearyen Bio

Ms. Kimberly Yearyen is the General Manger for the Reservation Transportation Authority (RTA). The RTA is a consortium of 22 Tribal Governments in Southern California. Ms. Yearyen worked for the Bureau of Indian Affairs in the Real Estate Department in addition to many other trust related duties. She was a consultant to the California Indian Lands non-profit organization assisting tribes with fee to trust applications for federally recognized tribes. She has worked in land transactions for approximately 20 years with the federal, state and tribal governments.